

Crescent Power, Inc. as been involved with Projects that cover a wide range of services and expert advice, including:

- Market Participation and Bidding Strategies
- Asset valuation
- Designing electricity markets representing clients
- Evaluating impact of market structure changes
- Forecasting locational electricity prices and congestion costs with changing transmission topology
- Financial impact of locational differences in resource interconnection
- Generation, prices, and curtailment of intermittent renewable resources
- Evaluation of energy storage devices
- Customized training and workshops at client sites

- Soliciting, evaluating, negotiating and contracting power purchase/sale agreements
- Providing expert testimony on electricity market related contractual lawsuits